How to Share Final Events Door-to-Door

Michigan Conference Bible worker Staci Osterman has graciously permitted Amazing Facts to share the strategy behind her highly successful door-to-door ministry using the Final Events of Bible Prophecy DVD. Since we featured her in the September/October 2005 issue, we've received dozens of calls and e-mails asking for specific advice and direction. Says Staci, "It is exciting to see so many people interested in going door to door! I believe this is the only way the work will be finished—when we take the truth to the people rather than inviting them to come to us for it."

A. Purpose

To find people interested in studying Bible prophecy.

B. Overview

In this ministry, Final Events is loaned to interested people to preview for one week. When the DVD is picked up, a follow-up survey is done to get feedback and determine further interest in studying prophecy. Bible studies are also offered to those interested.

C. Going Door to Door

Visit 1:

1. Choose a street in the community to survey.
2. When a person comes to the door, you'll fill out the Final Events Prophecy Survey with them.
3. If they answer "Yes" to the last question, lend them a DVD to preview for one week. Tell them it was recently released and you are really interested in getting their feedback.
4. Schedule an appointment to pick up the DVD for the following week. (Be sure to request their phone number in case you happen to miss them the next week. People usually give it.)
5. Use the Survey Record Sheet to keep track of the homes on your street, including name, address, and phone.
6. If no one is home, try that house again another time. But also be sure to indicate those simply not interested in the survey or DVD.

Visit 2:

1. When you return for your pickup appointment, tell them you would love to get their feedback on the DVD. Fill out the Final Events Prophecy Follow-Up Survey.
2. Offer a follow-up! The survey is designed to lead into personal or drop-off Bible studies. However, you can use it to lead into other offers: a Daniel and Revelation home small group, a prophecy seminar, a satellite series, etc.
3. Schedule time and date for personal Bible studies, if interested.
4. Drop-off lessons are best for those who seem hesitant about other study options but want to learn more. Try to offer drop-off lessons only when they seem reluctant about personal studies.
5. If inviting them to an event or study group, provide a brochure and map.
6. Mark on your Survey Record Sheet the day and time of the scheduled study and any further notes.

D. Tips for Door-to-Door Surveying

1. Pray that God will lead you to those looking to heaven and wanting to better understand His Word.
2. Walk on sidewalks—not across yards
3. Ring the doorbell SLOWLY or knock seven times
4. When the door opens, take a step back.
5. SMILE!
6. Be positive—remember Jesus stands beside you and is impressing their heart!

E. Addressing Denominational Questions

Q. What church are you with?

A. I am representing Amazing Facts, a Christian ministry that provides Bible study resources for people of all different faiths. My goal is to encourage others to read the Bible and learn how to find God.

F. Follow-Up Bible Lesson Offers

Although Staci draws on numerous Bible studies from several Spirit-led ministries, she does follow-up many of her leads with Amazing Facts Storacles of Prophecy and our popular Study Guides.
